Our Learning

Math	In live instruction, we will be reviewing multiplication facts and then working our way into understand place values. It's our goal to master multiplying and dividing by 10, 100, and 1,000 through the OLS and live Instruction
Reading	In live instruction and the OLS, students will begin to paraphrase the main idea with supporting details from literacy and informational text.

Reminders

Please have your fourth grader complete iReady Benchmarks iReady benchmarks should be completed by student without any outside help.
